

"EAGLES LIFE IN THE FAST LANE" FACT SHEET

- Eagles band members, Glenn Frey, Don Henley, Joe Walsh and Timothy B. Schmit, have gone back into the studio to re-record their famed smash hit, turning it into a one-of-kind version exclusively for the new ride.
- Vekoma Rides Manufacturing, one of the largest roller coaster manufacturers in the world, is designing and engineering the ride together with its US alliance partner Chance-Morgan.
- A two-minute-long journey - the longest coaster ride at the Park
- Features a double lift with Lift heights of 39 feet and 46 feet, respectively
- Each train holds 22-24 people (4 coaches per train, 6 people per coach) and features an on-board, high-fidelity digital audio system to further enhance the ride experience.
- Total length of track is 2,234 feet
- Maximum speed: 50 KPH with hairpin turns that pull 2 G-Forces

Eagles – An American rock band formed in the early 1970's and composed of Glenn Frey, Don Henley, Joe Walsh and Timothy B. Schmit. The band has won five GRAMMY® awards, most recently in February 2008 for "Best Country Performance by Duo or Group" for "How Long." The album Their Greatest Hits (1971-1975) has gone platinum 29 times, making it the highest selling album in the United States by a rock group. The Eagles broke up in 1980, but reunited in 1994.

"Life in the Fast Lane," a song by the Eagles, was first featured on the chart-topping album Hotel California in 1976.